

We find some pretty amazing stuff lying around our offices. Like art for old MAD paperbacks that hasn't been seen in years! What's really amazing, though, is that we can actually use that stuff to fill two pages in any given issue! (And that schmucks like you will actually read it!) This month we're showcasing five of artist Norman Mingo's classic book covers from the late '60s and early '70s
